

NORWICH TOWN

Yantic Rector and Choir at Sheltering Arms Service—Nichols Family to Move to Portland, Maine—Oyster Supper Party.

At the Sheltering Arms Sunday there was evening prayer and an address by Rev. John Areson, rector of Grace Episcopal church, Yantic. The parable of The Good Samaritan was read and lessons drawn therefrom. Jerusalem was builded high, Jericho was on a plain, he began. The "certain man" in the parable was going down from the city of righteousness to the city of sin. As he went down the first wrong step was taken, then followed evil associations, he and among thieves. The priesthood of the Jewish nation did not help those in need. The Levite came nearer but only knew Thon shall not, he did not practice. Thou shalt love thy neighbor. The Samaritan knew naught of priest or of law, he was a law to himself. He came in compassion, and gave the man spirit and life and strength. Our Lord means by this parable to teach that the fallen can be restored and can be kept for Christ until He come again.

Mrs. Bolande accompanied for the hymns for the day which included in the Hour of Trial, the Magnificat, Nunc Dimittis, and in closing. Now the Day is Over. The members of the quartet, Miss Lillian, Miss Lois Manning, Raymond Congdon and Leo Morris.

Quail Search Out Food.
A flock of 18 quail was seen Sunday coming through the woods and walking down the road to Bellevue farm where they found grain scattered and were soon busy eating it. The marsh quail, a big, gray bird with whitish breast, yellow about the throat and white lines on the tail feathers, has made its appearance on Wauveus Hill where it was fed. Later a flock of seven came back to T. B. Beeham's and went directly to the corn crib where they fed.

Guests of Plain Hill Hostess.
Miss Marjorie M. Barber entertained a number of young people from the city at her home on Plain Hill. Those in the party were Mrs. Edward Rawson, Misses Blanche Armstrong, Marion Woodworth, Dorothy Rogers and Charlotte Christianson; also John Durham, Andrew Galey and Leslie Ward.

Will Move to Portland.
Miss Mary Rudden of Versailles was the guest Sunday of Mrs. B. Nichols of Bliss place. Mr. Nichols has resigned as superintendent at Porter's and has moved to Portland, Maine, where Mr. and Mrs. Nichols will move in the spring.

Served Oyster Supper.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Olsen gave an oyster supper Wednesday evening at their home on the Scotland road for a party of twelve. Grapophone selections were enjoyed after the supper.

Noted Out and About.
Miss Nina Phreaner of West Town street is visiting friends in New Milford.

A force of fourteen men are cutting five inch ice on Tatfield reservoir, near the Old Canterbury turnpike.

Mrs. Frank Lathrop and Mrs. Ira Wheeler of Bozrah were recent guests of Mrs. Louis Olsen of the Scotland road.

Mrs. Hazard Tucker returned Friday to Scotland after spending a few weeks here with her daughter, Mrs. Adelbert E. Geer.

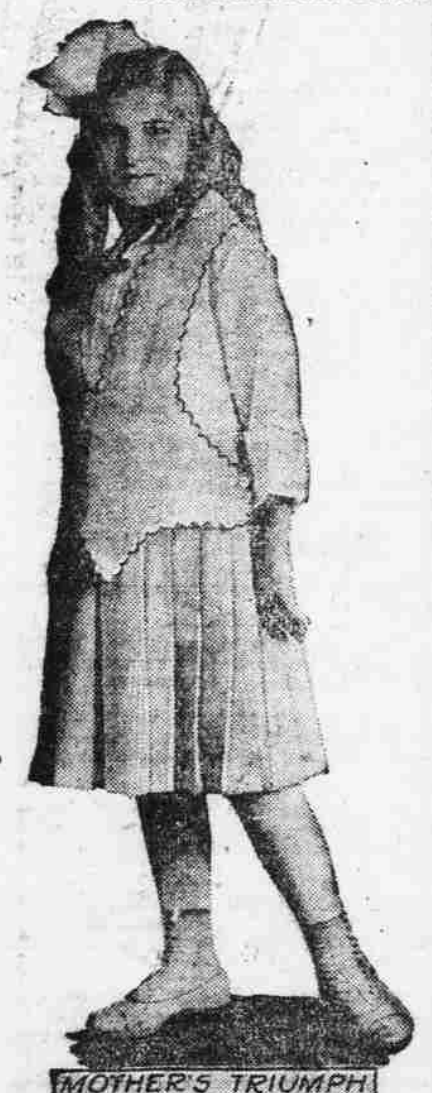

The First Methodist cottage prayer meeting will be held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wheeler on Otrabando avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillian Beebe and son, Donald, return this week to New Haven, after visiting at Mr. Beebe's former home on the Scotland road.

The students at Connecticut college, Misses Susan Wilcox, Marion Rogers, and Ruth Avery are at their homes here for the week end and Washington's birthday.

New Britain.—The American Hostess company is the busiest now of any period in its history.

HOW SCHOOL GIRLS WILL LOOK WHEN WARM WEATHER COMES

Blue gingham has been allotted to small girls by Dame Fashion. This child wears a fitted skirt of this popular material over a white batiste gimp with a corset of the gingham scalloped around all edges and buttoned so as to simulate a belt.

HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR THIS IMPORTANT EVENT

Our Annual February Sale of Kitchen Furnishings

It Will Commence Wednesday Morning, February 23rd, at 8.15

If we were compelled to go out into the open markets now and buy the merchandise which we offer in this Sale, we would, in many cases, be obliged to pay considerably more for them than the prices at which they are marked for our customers. But our preparations for this big event have been going on for months. Our local buyers as well as our New York representatives have been constantly on the alert.

We have also had the loyal and hearty cooperation of manufacturers and importers from whom we buy immense quantities of goods every season. Large surplus quantities have been secured, price concessions made. We are prepared to offer our customers the highest grade merchandise (the only kind we carry) at substantial reductions from the old, before-the-advance prices. We urgently advise our customers to lay in a sufficient quantity to last them for a long time to come.

REMEMBER—THIS SALE WILL COMMENCE WHEN THE STORE OPENS AT 8.15 TOMORROW MORNING
